

BALI TRAVEL SPECIAL

KOMANEKA

Not many places in the world offer a timeless lifestyle the way Ubud does; where culture, religion and art blend together to create a certain irresistible charm that has attracted many artists and artistic figures from all over the planet for decades. An idyllic village with beautiful rice terraces, with the intoxicating sounds of gamelan and serenity in the air, Ubud is a living photograph of the traditional Balinese life, nestling amidst the bustling cosmopolitan life surrounding it.

The Komaneke Resorts are created by the hands of a couple born and raised in Ubud. Carefully putting together its ideal settings, Koman Wahyu Suteja and his wife Mansri Trisniawati, an architect couple, selected luxuriant landscapes amidst larger settings of village life.

It started in 1997 with 20-rooms and now expanding into 22 units of 16 Suite Rooms and 6 pool villas, property in the lively Monkey Forest Road. Guests are invited to experience an oasis of serenity in a colorful busy street with wonderful shops and restaurants.

After operated for 3 years, Komaneke opened a more tranquil property in Tanggayuda with 20 villas and now present 35 villas including the signature of Bale Daja our spacious luxury two bedrooms pool villa, dedicated to honeymooners and couples in romantic getaways.

By 2008, an enchanting property is created in a spectacular setting of Bisma Street. This property features 44 unit including Bisma Suite rooms in a 4-storey building and sophisticated villas leans to the cliff, overlooking the Campuhan river valley with its sloping coconut groves and rice fields. By September 2011 a 30 units of the famous deluxe collection and 2 Roof-top villa is opened which located in the lively Monkey Forest Road, a 100 meters from the 1st Komaneke at Monkey Forest.

Guests in every property can learn more about Balinese culture through private lessons in dance, wood-carving, painting, cooking, wearing traditional attire, and even how to create a traditional Balinese offering. At the same time, Guests are also invited to enjoy Komaneke's extensive spa facilities for a happy and healthy holiday. Indulge in a wide range of massage treatments, relax in steam room and jacuzzi, wall set amidst tranquil ponds and soothing atmosphere.

Designed to reflect a contemporary interpretation of traditional Balinese style and architecture, the resorts are fully managed by local professional, making them the perfect gateway to enjoy an authentic Balinese hospitality experience.
