LUXE LOVES: THE BEST VILLAS THE LUXE NOMAD TEAM HAVE STAYED AT

Like 102 Tweet Pin it Share 7

It's not too shabby a gig, being a luxe nomad. We're fortunate to travel a lot (this is how we do it), and there's nothing like catching up while gushing about our favourite new villas and hotels. The list could go on, but here are just five places we swear by, from one nomad to another.

#1 Komaneka at Bisma in Ubud, Bali

A sophisticated and contemporary design that makes you feel at home

The best part: We went expecting greatness due to its prime location by the Campuhan river, but it was the service that blew us away. All the staff knew our names, prepared a platter of vegetarian-friendly dishes to suit our special diet, and restocked the cookie supply in our rooms daily. The views were magnificent as well. Every angle was photogenic, especially by the pool.

Tip: Go full-on luxe and book yourself the Masterpiece of Bisma Residence, a spacious 1,485sqm suite with three master bedrooms.
