New suites for Komaneka at Monkey Forest

Life is about living each moment of the journey. At Komaneka at Monkey Forest, Ubud, we understand there's nothing as comforting as enjoying the things you love, without having to ask. If you want to ensconce yourself in Ubud, enjoy our 16 remarkable, refreshed new look suites, which are a mix of traditional and modern design. Our secluded tropical garden view accompanies your meals or afternoon tea at the Garden Terrace restaurant and we have even introduced a departure lounge to provide an extended experience in the resort. With a convenient location right in the center of Ubud, all your favorite places are close at hand, including museums, shops and restaurants. Before you skip town, remember to take a look at all the comfort and quality of our new suites at Komaneka at Monkey Forest. To celebrate their new look, we are offering a one-night experience with a 60-minute Balinese Massage at Komaneka Spa. See komaneka.com for more details.

Mulia – Nusa Dua featured on US TV show

The Mulia – Nusa Dua, Bali has recently been featured on an episode of the US romance reality series The Bachelor, which was aired on Monday, Feb. 23. The episode featured romantic overnight dates on the Bali property with the newest Bachelor, Chris Soules. Soules, handsome and successful, has become known as "Prince Farming". He introduced himself to last season's Bachelorette, Andi Dorfman, and female fans fell hard for the soft-spoken man with a heart of gold. Now, this dreamboat farmer and wealthy businessman from Iowa is looking to fall in love and find a wife — and bring her back home to share a life with him in the small Iowa town of Arlington. With the support of his family and the state of Iowa rooting for him, Soules believes he can find the right woman to share a life with. Follow Chris Soules' search for his soul mate in the 19th edition of The Bachelor on Mondays on the ABC Television Network.
